

DVLA Report

Work-related accidents account for 33% of all highway crashes. A DVLA Report enables you to gain crucial insight into your candidate's driving history prior to making a hire.

BackCheck's comprehensive DVLA Report can safeguard your company's assets and your clients from the Corporate Manslaughter and Corporate Homicide Act 2007. Under this act, companies and organisations can be found guilty of corporate manslaughter as a result of negligent hiring practices. This includes fatalities caused by an employee driving on company time.

Ensuring the safety and proper conduct of your fleet drivers is paramount to protect your company from potential liabilities. BackCheck's DVLA reports include crucial information about an individual's driving history, including impaired charges, conditions, restrictions or endorsements present on a candidate's driving record.

Benefits of BackCheck's DVLA Report:
