

Education Verification

10% of candidates have made misrepresentations about their Education History.

- Unbiased information straight from the Registrars' offices.
- An inexpensive measure of honesty.
- Phony education institutions or "diploma mills" are abundant
- Comply with industry guidelines and ensure job specific requirements are met.
- A relatively inexpensive check with a great deal of investigative value.
- 2-3 business day is the typical turnaround time.

BackCheck's People, Process and Technology combine to deliver excellent results.

- Since 1997, BackCheck has verified the education histories of several hundred thousand employment candidates.
- Professionally trained HR Interviewers who have verified backgrounds of thousands of employment candidates.
- We maintain a database of thousands of educational institutions with whom we have developed protocols to obtain results quickly.
- We know how to contact (phone, fax, email), whom to contact (Registrars' office, Admissions and Records) and when to contact (some institutions specify a day of the week).
- Leading technology - real-time reports delivered online when institutions respond to our enquiries.
- We can instantly and securely deliver consent to educational institutions, many of whom require receipt of candidate consent prior to releasing information.
- Leading methodology - we make multiple attempts to contact educational institutions, and are always available to take their call backs.
- When a roadblock is uncovered, or a delay is foreseen, we are quick to communicate to our customers the estimated resolution date.
