

Employment History Verification

30% of candidates have made misrepresentations about their Employment History.

- Unbiased information straight from Payroll or Human Resources.
- An excellent double-check to compare with information obtained through reference interviews.
- Looks for gaps in a CV or job application and cross-references.
- Comply with industry guidelines.
- A relatively inexpensive check with a great deal of investigative value.
- A consistent, auditable process.
- 2-3 business days is the typical turnaround time.

Benefits of BackCheck's Employment Verification

- A consistent, auditable, high quality process.
- Eliminate the chance of 'telephone tennis' as professional reference interviewers are available during extended business hours.
- As a detached third party, we can objectively conduct references without possible bias arising from having met your candidates.
- Customisable template available.
- Quick and easy reference with a great deal of information.
- Flexible, bespoke strategies to accommodate any preference.
- Consent delivered instantly upon request.
- Typical turnaround of 2-3 business days.

Global Provider with Local Knowledge
Multilingual Support through 4 operation centres – in the UK, North America and Asia.

